Smart Camera: how it works

The problems it solves

Service done, never rung up
You never know how many services slip through without a ticket.

Seat updates are forgotten
The team is busy; clients see the wrong wait and walk away.

"Who is in the chair?"
No time to check history, so the upsell is missed and the wrong stylist is sent.

Busy hours are a guess
Staffing and chair planning without real numbers.

- Clients can say no at any time; their face data is then deleted.
- Face data stays private and is never sold or shared.
- Each salon sees only its own clients.
